Call Wexner Home Care If ...

As an individual, you've:

- Been discharged from the hospital in the last 30 days.
- Had a recent decrease in mobility, a fall or an emergency room visit.
- Recently had surgery.
- Received a serious new diagnosis.
- Noticed a decline in your condition.

As a family member, you:

- Can no longer manage your loved one's needs.
- Live too far away to respond to an emergency.
- Think your loved one spends too much time alone.
- Notice a recent weight loss, difficulty preparing meals or an empty pantry.
- Find being a caregiver is taking a toll on your own health.
- Are worried about who will take care of your spouse if you become ill.

Email us at homecare@whv.org or call 614-559-5590 to schedule a free consultation and discover the Wexner Home Care difference.

Wexner Home Care

Wexner Heritage Village

Asking for help can be hard. Calling Wexner Home Care is easy. Our team of experts will listen to your concerns and help you craft a plan to meet your goals and live the life you want.

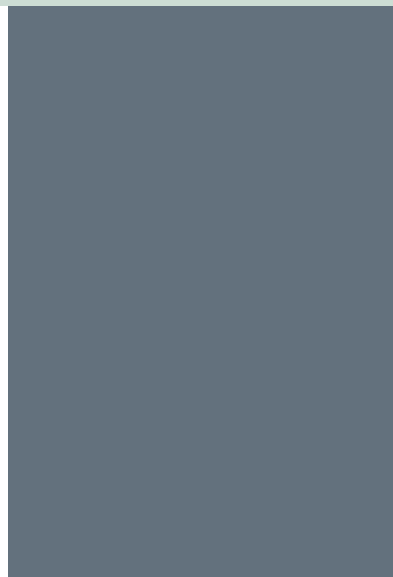

To find out more call 614-559-5590.

Recovering from a hospitalization can be challenging, especially if you live alone or will be on your own during the day. Individuals just out of the hospital often need help with everyday activities like getting dressed, fixing lunch or running a load of laundry. Wexner Home Care's high-quality help allows you to focus on your recovery and get back to work and the things you enjoy.

For older adults who need a higher level of assistance to live independently at home, our trained caregivers and professional care managers will create a customized plan to meet your current needs which can be updated as your situation changes.

The Wexner Home Care Difference

ONLY Wexner Home Care offers every client supervision of their case by a geriatric care manager, at no additional cost, to ensure the services they receive are appropriate and of the highest quality. This additional safeguard ensures clients and their families have an active partner to support health, wellness and independence.

In addition, we carefully screen our caregivers to match your preferences for personality, values, communication style and sense of humor. Finding the right fit enriches our clients' experience as we provide assistance, such as:

Personal Care

- Bathing, toileting and personal hygiene
- Morning and/or bedtime routines
- Disease-specific care – including Alzheimer's / dementia care
- Medication assistance

Housekeeping

- Grocery shopping and meal preparation
- Laundry and light cleaning
- Errands
- Household projects and organization

Companionship

- Trips to the doctor
- Working in the garden
- Walking to the park
- Emailing friends

Taking It to the Next Level

Home Care is not a cookie cutter business – it is a people business. Every one of our clients has a unique set of circumstances. Our professional care managers specialize in understanding your situation through open and honest dialogue with you, your family and other members of your healthcare team.

For individuals who want more, Wexner Home Care offers a fee-for-service concierge level of care, and can:

- Conduct a comprehensive assessment of your situation and work with you to create a personalized plan that focuses on quality of life, safety and optimum wellness.
- Act as a communications “hub” for doctors and other healthcare providers, family members and professional services providers (i.e. attorneys or financial advisors).
- Reduce stress and pressure on individuals and their families – especially those living at a distance – by advocating for the client and acting as an extra set of eyes and ears.
- Monitor your situation to spot changes and recommend an appropriate course of action.
- Respond immediately if unexpected needs develop or a change in support is needed – 24/7.
