Zusman Hospice Names Eight Members
to Its New Advisory Board

COLUMBUS, OHIO - Wexner Heritage Village formed a new advisory board for its Zusman Hospice by naming eight key leaders this week. The new advisory board will provide guidance on the growth of Zusman's presence in the Central Ohio market and consult on maintaining its standards for operations and quality.

Joining the advisory board are: Dr. David Cohn, Dr. Rob Crane, Andrew Grossman, Hannah Pirwitz, Joyce Politi, Ruth Sniderman, Keith Schuss and Dr. Eric Zidel.

Wexner Heritage Village staff members also serving on the advisory board are: David Rosen, President and CEO; Dr. Jennifer Hirsh, Medical Director, Zusman Hospice; Nisha Hammel, SVP, Home Health & Hospice; Rabbi Sharon Mars, Asst. Director, Spiritual Life; and Sue Ashcraft, Executive Director, Zusman Hospice.

Zusman Hospice's interdisciplinary team of professionals, including a full-time medical director, focuses on providing palliative care treatment that improves quality of life for its clients.

Wexner Heritage Village is a non-profit provider of health, housing, and supportive services designed to promote healthy living for aging and disabled individuals on our campus and in the community. In life-affirming Jewish culture, our extensive family of services enhances the lives of more than 500 people each day. For details, call 614-231-4900 or visit www.whv.org.
